THE CRISIS IN GREECE.

ALLIES MAY OCCUPY ATHENS.

November 26, 6.15 a.m.
It is believed that Admiral Fournet will occupy Athens if his demands are not conceded.
It is estimated that the Royalist Reservists number 10,000, and that they are well armed.

Provisional Government Declares War on Bulgaria.

November 26, 5.15 a.m.
The Provisional Government at Salonica has declared war on Bulgaria.

Virtually at War with Bulgaria.

November 26, 6.20 a.m.
Reuter's correspondent at Athens says Greece is regarded as virtually at war with Bulgaria, as the Provisional Government, which the Allies regard as the de facto Government, has declared war on Bulgaria.

The Venizelists have also declared war on Germany, because of the torpedoing of ships carrying Nationalist forces.

Admiral Fournet's Ultimatum.

November 25, 11.25 p.m.
Reuter's correspondent at Athens says Admiral Fournet has sent an ultimatum to Greece demanding the surrender of artillery; otherwise, he will be obliged to take suitable measures on December 1.

THE ALLIED OFFENSIVE.

Artillery Activity at Vaux.

November 26, 12.05 a.m.
A Paris communique states:—There has been mutual artillery firing in the Vaux region, and intermittent cannonading on the rest of the front.

Bad Weather Prevents Encounters.

November 26, 6.20 a.m.
Reuter's correspondent at the British Headquarters, writing on Saturday, states:—Apart from minor incidents and trench warfare, there have been no encounters to-day, rain falling heavily and persistently.

The bombardment of Beaumont Hamel and Beaumont has slackened, having failed to make any impression.

A flicker of activity by German aeroplanes was promptly extinguished by our pilots felling a number.

The British are actively consolidating the new ground, which is in a deplorable condition.

British Use Gas Successfully.

November 26, 1.00 p.m.
General Sir Douglas Haig reports:—We drove off an attempted advance by a party to the east of Beaumont Hamel, and discharged gas successfully to the south of Arras, where we repulsed raids.

Nothing to Report.

November 26, 3.50 p.m.
A Paris communique states:—There is nothing important to report on the western front.

A German Claim.

November 26, 7.15 p.m.
A German communique says:—In a trench raid north-east of Beaumont Hamel we captured 161 British prisoners.

IN THE BALKANS.

British Aviators Reach Bukharest.

Reuter learns that more British aeroplanes and pilots have reached Bukharest after very long flights.

Bad Weather Prevents Infantry Actions.

November 26, 3.50 p.m.
A Paris communique states:—There is a violent artillery duel to the north and east of Monastir, but no infantry actions, owing to bad weather.

The Italians on our left wing again progressed in the direction of Tarnova.
British aeroplanes bombarded enemy camps in the region of Neohori, at the mouth of the Sira.

Stubborn Rumanian Resistance.

November 26, 7.15 p.m.
A German communique says:—We captured Rsmnicul-valcea, in the Alt Valley.

The Rumanians are still stubbornly resisting, but the roads to the east of the Alt are crowded with fleeing baggage waggons.
We are in touch with forces which crossed the Danube, and the latter are now before Alexandria.

Nothing to Report.

November 26, 7.10 p.m.
A Russian communique says that there is nothing important to report.

Opposition to the Bulgarians.

November 26, 7.10 p.m.

SEVEN NEW V.C.'S.

Some Stirring Deeds Recounted.

November 26, 7.20 p.m.
Seven Victoria Crosses have been awarded, the notable cases of bravery being as follows:—

Lieutenant Bradford, of the Durham Light Infantry, who as Temporary Lieut.-Col. assumed command of two battalions and saved the situation when the flank was endangered.

Sergeant Downie, of the Dabline, who, when most of the officers were down, shouted "Come on Dab." The stirring appeal was immediately responded to. The men rushed on and Sergeant Downie captured a machine-gun, killing the crew. The Dabline then captured positions which had withstood five previous attacks.

There were other deeds of a somewhat similar character, but only one case of life-saving—that in which Second Lieutenant Henry Kelly, of the West Riding, four times brought back wounded, besides doing conspicuous work in an attack.

There were outstanding cases of privates saving dangerous situations. The first was that of Frederick Edwards, of the Middlesex Regiment. His part of the line was held up machine-gun fire and there were no officers left. All was confusion and there was every indication of a retirement when Edwards, grasping the situation, dashed out alone on his own initiative and knocked out the gun, with a total disregard for personal danger, which made a further advance possible.

The other case is that of Robert Ryder, also of the Middlesex Regiment, who showed bravery under similar circumstances. An attack was flagging for lack of leadership when he dashed out alone with a Lewis gun, with which he cleared the opposing trench, turning a possible failure into success.

D.S.O. Awards.

November 27, 9.40 p.m.
The Gazette announces that Distinguished Service Orders have been awarded to the following officers of the Indian Army:—
Captain W. G. Harrington, who, although severely wounded, commanded and handled his regiment with great courage and ability throughout the action.

Captain W. F. Webb, who, although wounded, handled his battalion with the greatest courage and initiative, and set a splendid example to his men.

A bar to his Distinguished Service Order is granted to Major F. A. Maxwell, who led his battalion with the greatest courage and initiative. Later he organised three battalions and consolidated a position under very heavy fire. He had previously done very fine work for which he had been awarded the Military Cross.

Captain R. W. Hingston for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended and dressed the wounded continuously under very heavy fire at close range, regardless of his own safety.

THE MECCA PILGRIMAGE.

November 25, 2.14 p.m.
The Times correspondent at Cairo says the Egyptian pilgrims have reached home from Mecca. They were greatly impressed by the perfect safety in which the journey was performed, contrasting with the turbulence, robbery and extortion under the Turkish regime. The Holy Carpet and the escort of the mahmal were conveyed for the first time from Suez to Jeddah on one of His Majesty's ships. All the crew were Mohammedans, of whom twelve made the pilgrimage.

THE ITALIAN FRONT.

November 26, 7.15 p.m.
An Italian official message says:—There are increased artillery duels along the whole front.

We destroyed enemy defences at Tonsle, in the Camonica valley region.

Our aircraft have been active, and two hostile aeroplanes have been destroyed.

TURKISH SENATOR EXECUTED.

November 26, 5.10 a.m.
A telegram from Constantinople states that Senator Abdul Hamid Zehravi has been condemned by court martial for attempting to make Syria an independent Arabian Principality, and has been executed.

GERMAN FRIGHTFULNESS.

A Protest from Sweden.

November 29, 5.10 a.m.
Reuter's correspondent at Stockholm states that the Government has requested Germany to enquire into the sinking of the Swedish steamer Arthur, reserving the right to claim reparation.

A New Era of Ruthlessness?

November 26, 5.15 a.m.
A message from Copenhagen says Sweden regard the sinking of the Arthur as the beginning of a new era of ruthlessness against neutrals, with the advent of Herr Zimmermann at the Foreign Office. The Arthur was taking coal to Gothenburg, and coal has hitherto been regarded as free.
The German excuse for sinking the vessel was that the Arthur formerly took pit props to England.

GERMANY REPATRIATING FRENCH REFUGEES.

November 26, 5.15 a.m.
According to Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam, the official organ Norddeutsche says 20,000 French refugees are being repatriated, distress preventing them from remaining in Germany.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO AUSTRIA.

November 26, 2.14 p.m.
Count Wedel has been appointed German Ambassador at Vienna.

GERMANY'S COMPULSION BILL.

Socialist Protests in the Reichstag.

November 26, 4.10 a.m.
Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam states that the Reichstag has opened.

The President moved that the first reading of the Compulsory Civilian Service Bill, which applies to all men between 17 and 60 years of age, be taken on the 28th inst.

Herr Groeber, of the Centre Party, moved that the Bill be read a second time on the same day.

This evoked a storm of disapproval from both Socialist groups. Herr Ledebur characterising the motion as an attempt to stifle discussion of a Bill which delivered the workers over to the exploitation of slave drivers.

The motion was, however, adopted.

The Liberals and Conservatives protested against the attempt by the Socialists to delay the passage of the Bill, which was a heroic effort towards final victory.

Discussion of the measure in committee on the previous day was noteworthy for a suggestion to restrict the publication of newspapers to one in each town. Dr. Helfferich denied such intention, declaring that the Government recognised the importance of newspapers in carrying on the war.

General von Groener announced that the manufacture of guns had been considerably extended and was now no longer a monopoly of Krupps.

ATTEMPTED GERMAN NAVAL RAID.

Deal Inhabitants' Experiences.

November 26, 2.15 a.m.
The inhabitants of Deal were awakened at midnight on Thursday by heavy firing. They rushed on to the front and saw flashes at an estimated distance of fifteen miles northwards.
The firing was most rapid and lasted for a very brief period.
A damaged drifter entered a Channel port under her own steam with a shell-hole in her water tank. The crew was unhurt.

THE BRITANNIC LOSSES.

November 26, 5.15 a.m.
According to a message from Athens, Admiral Fournet reports that the losses on the Britannic were thirty-two lives.

[In the event of telegrams arriving too late for insertion on this page they will be found on an Extra.]

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

IN THE BALKANS.

Italians Still Advancing.

November 25, 4.50 p.m.
A French communique states that the Italians continue to advance west of Monastir.

Rumanians Further Pressed Back.

November 25, 5.00 p.m.
A Russian communique states:—
In the Alt Valley the enemy energetically attacked and pressed back the Rumanians towards the south of Kalimanesh and Moldarosh.
The enemy from Craiova compelled the Rumanians to retire behind the River Olteaz.
The Germans have crossed the Danube near Zimnitra.

Enemy Landing.

November 25, 5.00 p.m.
A Rumanian communique says the enemy has landed troops at Idaz and Yimnitra, north of which the advance has been arrested.

Germans Claim Progress.

November 25, 6.45 p.m.
A German communique states:—
The Rumanian resistance is broken on the Lower Olt. We crossed the river there.
Rumanian battalions, cut off from the main army, are stubbornly resisting.
North-east of Turnseverin the forces of the Central Powers, after crossing the Danube, gained a footing in Rumanian territory.

GERMAN NAVAL RAID.

North End Downs Visited.

November 25, 5.10 p.m.
An Admiralty communique states that during the night of the 23rd-24th inst. six German destroyers attempted to approach the North End Downs.
The enemy were seen by a patrol vessel, and steamed off after firing twelve rounds.
There were no casualties, but a drifter was slightly damaged.
The open town of Ramsgate was untouched.

An Extraordinary German Claim.

November 25, 6.45 p.m.
The Germans claim that in the Channel raid they sank a patrol vessel and bombarded the fortified place Ramsgate. They saw nothing of the British Fleet and withdrew safely to their home base.

LATEST SINKINGS.

November 25, 8.50 p.m.
The Norwegian steamers Ofjord and Trym have been sunk.

BOARD OF TRADE PROHIBITION.

November 25, 8.50 p.m.
The Board of Trade has prohibited the use of wheat in the manufacture of beer.

THE HOWITT-PHILLIPS COMPANY.

On Thursday and Friday next the Howitt-Phillips Repertory Company will give two farewell performances at the Victoria Theatre.

The two plays selected are "Peg o' my Heart," and "What the Butler Saw." In the former piece, Miss Doris Phillips will repeat her remarkable impersonation of "Peg," the sweet Irish girl, and will be supported by Mr. Charles Howitt as Jerry, Miss Isabel Fladgate as Cousin Ethel, Miss Lillian Stanbridge as Mrs. Obichester, and, of course, her dog Michael. On Friday, the farewell night, that screaming farce "What the Butler Saw" will be played, when Mr. Wheeler Dryden will appear as the much-worried butler, a part which gives great scope to this popular comedian.

The plans and booking are now open at Messrs. Montcries.

GENERAL NEWS.

Buying for Russia.
The China Critic states that government agents and private persons are buying largely, throughout China and Japan, all sorts of articles needed in Russia, which are dispatched by parcels post via Harbin, at the rate of some 2,000 to 2,500 a day. The contents include metals, rubber, oils, leather, etc., and the traffic is said to be growing.

India Plague Mortality.
The total plague mortality in India during the week ending Oct. 14 stood at 5,663 against 7,564 cases. The Bombay Presidency and Sind had 2,799 deaths, the Madras Presidency 353, Bihar and Orissa 28, the United Provinces 108, the Punjab 59, Burma 35, Central Provinces 1,028, Mysore State 482, Hyderabad State 734, and Central India 36.

The Kut Heroes.
Simla, October 20.—A list of officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, brought to notice by Lieut.-General Sir P. Lake in connection with the operations of Indian Expeditionary Force "D," from January 19th to April 30th, 1916, and a list of officers, non-commissioned officers and men mentioned by Major-General Townshend for distinguished service during the defence of Kut-el-Amara, from December 3rd, 1915, to April 29th, 1916, are gazetted.

Another American Murdered in Mexico.
Washington, November 20.—A despatch just received at the state department from El Paso, Texas, states that an unidentified American has been murdered by Villista forces operating at Jimenez, and that four Americans found at Parral are being held as prisoners by the bandit leader. Indications at present point to the fact that Villa is using every effort to force intervention on the part of the United States, and that his repeated attacks upon foreigners and American citizens are designed to bring this about. Officials here have thus far refused to comment upon the latest developments in the Mexican situation.

Vardon on Putting.
Dismissing on "Methods of Putting" in the Golfers' Magazine, Harry Vardon tells of an eccentric player who holed several long putts with his driver. "Look here," said his opponent, a man steeped in the traditions of St. Andrews, "do you use anything for short putts as well?" "Short putts?" repeated the local eccentric. "Haven't I had a short putt yet? No, of course I haven't. Well, I always take this for short putts"—and, diving to the bottom of his bag, he produced an ordinary household hammer! Vardon once imitated this eccentric by having a "rather foolish-looking club" made for himself; it was only a foot long, and he used it in the days when he was "about the worst putter in the world."

Situation in Szechwan.
Chengtu, November 17.—Advices from Neikiang state that the garrison, owing to arrears of pay, threatened to revolt. The Commander borrowed money from the merchants, thus averting trouble. It is reported that Taikan will soon arrive at Chengtu. The citizens, though they dislike Taikan, will not oppose his coming and regard the superior abilities of General Lopekun as able to maintain the peace of the City. The situation is similar to that of Shensi. Taikan, the Civil Governor of Kweichow, was recently appointed Civil Governor of Szechwan. There has been considerable agitation against the appointment, which is alleged to be instigated by General Lopekun, the acting Tsuchun. It appears also that there has been a split in the Provincial Assembly on the subject, while the Military in Szechwan have recently strongly denounced General Lopekun, accusing him of attempting to prevent the entry of Taikan by force.

GERMAN ROBBERIES IN BELGIUM.

Light Railway Stock Seized.

Reuter's Agency learns that the British Government has been informed that the German Government has seized 200 locomotives, 2,500 pieces of rolling stock, and several hundred kilometres of rails belonging to the Belgian light railways known as the Chemins de Fer Vicinaux. This is only another evidence of the insincerity of German protestations of sympathy for the populations of occupied countries.

The railways in question are a peculiarity of Belgium, and serve many of the country districts in the absence of broad-gauge lines. There is a network of them all over the country, and the population depends in large measure upon them. They are very largely used for conveying market produce to urban centres and in conveying foodstuffs to rural districts. The confiscation at the present moment is especially serious in view of the harvest, which is just coming in and which always taxes these lines to their utmost extent. As a result the internal traffic of the country and the transport of food essential to the maintenance of a population on the verge of starvation have been interrupted.

Some days ago the company, which manages these railways applied to the British Government for permission to import copper, tin, lubricating oil, and other materials necessary for the working of the lines. They applied to the German Governor General for a guarantee against reparations, and he replied by giving a guarantee that the materials would not be seized upon production of proof that they had been imported from other countries, thus clearly showing the intention of the Germans to seize all the materials already in Belgium.

In a reply, at the end of June, the British Government informed the Belgian Minister that they would be prepared to allow the importation of the necessary materials as soon as the Germans gave a guarantee that no materials of the same kind would be requisitioned in Belgium, that the property of the lines should be scrupulously respected throughout the whole country, and that no rails nor rolling stock nor any other articles whatsoever appertaining to the railway should be requisitioned. The reply of the Germans, which was as above stated, has just been received.

Japan-China Association.
The inauguration ceremony of the Japan-China Association took place at the Seiyoken, Tsukiji, Tokyo, last Tuesday. The society has been promoted, says the Japan Chronicle, by a number of business men and members of the Seiyukai and Kokumintu though it is claimed that it has no political connections. The object of association is to promote friendship between Japan and China and as the first step in this direction the association will take charge of the Chinese students in Tokyo in certain matters. Already a large dormitory is being built at Zoshiga-ya by the society for the accommodation of Chinese students.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1916.

HONGKONG SANITARY MATTERS.

If, as a result of the questions which he is putting at to-morrow's meeting of the Sanitary Board, Dr. Ozorio is able to cause a strict supervision to be imposed in regard to the removal of nightsoil from European households, he will have earned the gratitude of a very considerable section of the community. The antiquated sanitary system with which Hongkong is compelled to put up is bad enough, in all conscience; it becomes a thousand times worse when it is worked in the manner in which it is. From time to time many complaints have been voiced concerning the obnoxious and unhealthy methods employed, but the authorities appear content to allow things to go on in the same old way, with small regard for the annoyances and inconveniences caused, while the general public has almost lost all hope of any more modern or more sanitary conditions being instituted. Newcomers to the Colony, and visitors from other Far Eastern settlements, are invariably astounded at the extent to which Hongkong is behind the times in this regard. And until some better system is devised, the Colony will continue to be regarded as hopelessly out-of-date from a sanitary point of view.

But the strange thing is, that although the shortcomings of our present sanitary system have been so manifest, Dr. Ozorio should be the first member of the Sanitary Board to seek enlightenment on the actual working of the system, at any rate in so far as the exact measure of control exercised by the authorities over the nightsoil coolies is concerned. We ourselves have before commented on this matter, but we have never been able to ascertain the real facts. The coolies are presumably those employed by the contractors who pay a considerable sum yearly for the nightsoil, which is removed from the Colony in conservancy boats and utilized for manuring purposes, especially in the silk-producing districts. Householders in turn contract with the coolies, who are supposed to visit the former's residences daily. But these coolies appear to be very much a law unto themselves. They come just when they feel inclined, and are apparently able to charge whatever sum per month they choose. If the householder is dissatisfied at the manner in which the coolies do their work, or is unwilling to pay what he considers an extortionate rate of remuneration, then he can look after his own sanitary arrangements as far as the coolies are concerned: the latter do not care a jot one way or the other. Not only does the coolie come and go when it suits his convenience, and charge his own rates: he even chooses his own district, to the extent of following the householder by whom he is employed. The result is that far more annoyances than necessary are caused through different coolies working at different times in the same locality. The ordureness of the methods employed by the coolies is another point which aggravates the system, and we are glad that Dr. Ozorio is drawing the Board's attention to that matter.

Dr. Ozorio further directs attention to the fact that, unless the coolies are paid "cumbaw," they only perform their duties on alternate days. That is a serious matter from a sanitary point of view. What we should like made clear is whether these coolies have a right to make any charge at all, and, if so, whether the authorities have any voice in fixing such charge. It seems to us that, in the absence of a modern sanitary system, the removal of nightsoil falls within the ordinary obligations which the authorities should discharge, or cause to be discharged, in return for taxes paid. At any rate, it is clear that there is a deal of confusion as to what the position generally is, and we shall await with interest the replies to the questions which are on the agenda for to-morrow's meeting of the Board.

Our Water Wasters.

We should like to ask the particular Government department that interests itself in Hongkong's water supply if it is aware that the present street-fountain system, in use in the Rider main district, is not a conspicuous success—if it is economy that the department is aiming at. At the present moment there is hardly a gutter, pavement, crossing or flight of steps in these districts that is not swimming with water, and the quantity that daily runs to waste would supply many scores of families. The pavements, too, are more dangerous than usual; indeed last night in Queen's Road West we saw one child and two adults lose their footing on this sloppy and treacherous ground. We are aware that many difficulties have to be taken for granted in a matter like this, but some would undoubtedly be cleared up if district watchmen and lakongs were told off to have a special eye to the fountain, and were held in some measure responsible where waste occurs. We notice that quite five-sixths of the people who come to draw water fill their vessels to the very brim, which naturally means that, in carrying or hoisting, about a quarter of the contents is distributed over the footway. The object of the stand-pipes was to prevent water from being used too extravagantly, but, from all we can learn, there is far more waste now than was the case when the taps were inside the houses. Another friendly question we would fain ask concerns the use of fresh water by steamboats mooring along the Praya. Is it a fact that some of the wharves are still supplied with a fresh-water pipe and that certain steamers alongside are allowed to fit on a hose to the said pipe, for the purpose of flushing their decks? One would think that salt water is quite good enough for this purpose. It may be very nice, from a Chinese steamship owner's point of view, thus to save the expense of keeping up steam for a donkey engine for pumping purposes; but, at a time when water-economy is called for, such a procedure seems hardly desirable.

Police Reserve Energies.
We would like again to congratulate the Hongkong Police Reserve, first on its arrangements for another term and championship shoot, and secondly on its projected "school." Regarding the latter, which is to be held at King's Park on Boxing Day, it will be seen from the preliminary notice published in last Friday's Telegraph that, as on the previous occasion, the competition will be open to teams from all His Majesty's armed forces in this Colony, whether regular or auxiliary. This, of course, offers a tolerably wide range, for it includes not only soldiers and sailors but Police, Police Reserve, Naval Yard Police, Gao Warders, Volunteers and Volunteer Reservists. The Easter Monday contest not only provided one or two examples of first-class shooting but it strengthened the link of friendship between the various corps of the Colony. A repetition of it cannot fail to meet with success, and all good sportsmen here will like to keep the date open—for if there was a fly in the ointment of the last contest it was that only a tiny percentage of the general public thought it worth while to take a run across to Kowloon to see the fun. Next the question of instruction classes. This is very much a move in the right direction. No one will deny that the corps has already more than justified its existence; has, in fact, proved a most valuable weapon in the hands of the Government. But the full work has not yet been got out of it, nor will this be the case till the various units have served a proper apprenticeship under the officers of the regular police. The Police Reserve is not a mere gathering of special constables; it is a recognised armed force—the only one quite of its kind in the Empire; and its members are naturally jealous that it should attain and preserve a high degree of efficiency.

Field Glass Fund.

Tied Round his Arms.
When being searched at Kowloon Railway Station, a man was found to have some packages of raw opium tied round his arms the value of the drug sought to be smuggled being $7. Inspector Gordon charged the man before Mr. F. A. Hazland this morning, and a fine of $70, or six weeks' hard labour, was imposed.

Pick-Pocket's Return.
A pick-pocket was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood, at the Police Court this morning, with stealing $305 from the pocket of a man in Des Voeux Road, on Saturday. The man was also charged with returning from banishment. For the first offence he was sentenced to six months' hard labour and for the second to six months' hard labour and four hours' stocks.

Godown Pilfering.
Mr. R. Packham, of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company, stated to Mr. J. R. Wood, at the Police Court this morning, that there was a lot of pilfering going on now. A man was charged with stealing eight boxes of matches from the godown and although he said he picked them up and was going to hand them over, he was sentenced to 14 days' hard labour.

Rogue and Vagabond.
As the woman occupant of 100, Nathan Road, Yau-mat, was lying down on Saturday afternoon she saw a strange man enter the room. She called a servant, but the man knocked the servant down and escaped by the window. He was arrested by a gardener, and charged, before Mr. F. A. Hazland, at the Police Court today, with being a rogue and vagabond. He was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Not Begging—Asking for Money.
Mr. P. P. J. Woodhouse, D.S.P., charged an old man at the Police Court this morning with begging. Mr. Woodhouse told Mr. F. A. Hazland that the man was a perfect nuisance at Deep Water Bay, as he was always pestering the golfers. One picnic party was spoilt by him. He was very persistent, and no one could get rid of him. Defendant said he was not begging, but only asking for money. His Worship fined defendant $5, or 14 days.

WAR CHARITIES.

Kowloon Workers' Gifts Acknowledged.

The following letters of thanks have been received for articles sent by "Our Little Bit Society" Kowloon:—

Nasirah Schools Military Hospital, Cairo, September 9, 1916.

Major Rickett R.A.M.C. (T.F.) begs to thank Lady May for the kind present of Red Cross supplies (4 cases) which through O'Loel Gordon Hall have been sent to this hospital.

These supplies are most useful and are very much appreciated by the Nursing Sisters and patients of this hospital. Major Rickett begs that the thanks of the hospital may be given to the who have so kindly worked for it. Colonel Gordon Hall says:—

Thank every one very much indeed for all they are sending and please let them know that bandages are not so much wanted as other articles. The War Office has filled up the place with lint and bandages and voluntary workers here cut them up for us.

East London Workers amongst the Poor, Sept. 26, 1916.

M. I ask you to accept very sincere thanks for the splendid parcel of clothing received for wounded soldiers of Shoreditch. We are most grateful and the men greatly appreciate your kindness. I have already given several garments away, as many men have been sent to Connaught House and they had scarcely any clothing at all. With renewed thanks.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
ADAM TUCKER,
Secretary.

Children's Aid Committee
Oct. 6 1916.

Your very kind gift of children's clothes reached us from Hongkong to-day and I am writing to thank you so much for the most useful contents of the parcel. The little pair of shoes was very much appreciated and we are always in great need of dresses, so we are indeed most grateful to you for your continued help. The demand for clothing for all these children is sometimes quite overwhelming.

With most grateful thanks
Yours faithfully
MARGARET DOUGLAS,
Hon. Sec.

Jackanapes Work Society,
94 Marlborough Mansions,
West Hampstead,
Oct. 19, 1916.

I have received two more cases of garments from the Little Bit Workers Society and am most grateful for them. The pyjamas are especially valuable. I have divided them between hospitals in Salonica and Mesopotamia where such things are in great request. Miss Beatrice Jones, Principal Matron of the Mesopotamian Hospitals, wrote to me in September, sending a list of things she especially wanted, and pyjamas headed the list. The dressing jackets are rather thin for winter use in the hospitals (so many are under canvas). I have got some white material and friends in Ragby are making trousers to the jackets and they will be used as pyjamas and very useful. I am dividing the bandages between some of the largest hospitals at home. I sent 216 to-day to No. 2 General Hospital, Chelsea. I am visiting some men in the eye ward there. One, a private in the Middlesex has lost both eyes, been shot through the palate, and spine injured. His old mother goes from Nottingham daily and sits by his bed. He really seems to be recovering now, and yesterday told us how he found a little black dog in Ypres whom he adopted and called "Nigger". He spent 5/- on having a collar and identification disc made, on which is "Nigger, found at Ypres. I belong to Pte. Miller, 4th Middlesex, I am C of E." The last he thought very amusing. He left the dog in charge of one of his officers, but is hoping to recover it. The clothes are much more useful to Jackanapes Work Society than the bandages, as I do not really undertake to supply surgical dressings, but of course I am distributing these where really wanted, 216 to Hampstead, 216 to Aylesbury (?) and so on.

Yours sincerely and gratefully
R. K. EDEN

H.K.C.C. v. A Military Team.

Playing on their own ground on Saturday, the Hongkong Cricket Club had to acknowledge defeat at the hands of a team representing the Military, by 22 runs. The Club batted first and started in very poor fashion, none of the batsmen making a stand against the bowling. Had it not been for the excellent score made by T. E. Pearce, who registered 61 in good style, their score would have been low indeed, the only other players to make double figures being T. W. Bissett 21 and P. Jacobs 18. The total made was 135. It seemed an easy thing for the Military, for runs came quickly, such good scores as 35, Page 35, Sargt. McGregor 35, Bdr. Dix 29, Lt. H. Griffin 20 and Lieut. D. R. Wahl 14 soon making victory certain. The tail end of the team was, however, weak and the innings closed for 157. The scores were as follows:—

LAWN BOWLS.

Kowloon Bowling Green Club at Home.

To mark the closing of the season, the members of the Kowloon Bowling Green Club were "at home" to their friends on Saturday afternoon, a large crowd of members and friends assembling on the green to witness the finals of the various club competitions. The event was favoured with very fine weather, and all spent a very enjoyable time.

The finals were all of an exciting nature, most of the games being exceedingly close. In addition to these, spoon games were played between teams representing the Taiiko, Police and Kowloon Clubs, the winners of spoons being Taiiko and Kowloon.

The Henderson Challenge Cup, which was presented by Mr. J. Henderson, an old member of the Club, was played for along with the Club Championship and won by Mr. G. R. Edwards.

At the close of the afternoon's play, the Vice President of the Club, Mr. W. Davison, in the course of a short speech, welcomed the visitors and called upon Mrs. A. Heron to present the prizes. After the distribution, Mr. Davison presented Mrs. Heron with a bouquet, on behalf of the members, and also thanked the ladies of the Club who had assisted in making the afternoon such a success by helping with the tea. Three cheers were given for the ladies and a very pleasant function was brought to a close.

The following were the prize-winners:—

Championship.—1, G. R. Edwards; 2, J. Parkes.

President's Prize.—1, W. Russell; 2, G. K. Haxton.

Vice President's Prize.—1, D. Muir; 2, J. Allan.

Non Prize Winners.—1, W. J. Fortie; 2, W. Brown.

Tennis (Ladies Singles).—1, Miss Logan; 2, Miss Kinross.

Tennis (Mixed Doubles).—1, Mr. and Mrs. Hall; 2, Miss Kinross and Mr. W. Brown.

Spoon Games.—Taiiko (Messrs. Ferguson, skip, Wetherpoon, Morrison, and Mathews) 25, and Kowloon (Messrs. Crawford, skip, Edib, Frost and Baytho) 19 winners. The losing teams were:—Kowloon (Messrs. D. Gov, skip, Chapman, May and Atkinson) 10 and Police (Messrs. Garrard, skip, Grant, Davitt and Sim) 15.

Club v. R. E.

These teams met in a U. S. League match on Saturday before a big crowd of spectators. Mr. M. G. Banks was the referee. The game could hardly be described as brilliant. It had its exciting moments, but was chiefly remarkable for the large number of easy chances missed by the Club forwards, whose shooting was execrable. Indeed, had the Club possessed a single man with the least idea of the whereabouts of the net, the R. E. must have been well beaten. On one occasion it was really remarkable how Chasels missed.

Coxon won the toss, and set the Club to face a glaring sun, but they were first away. Walker running right through. Finding himself shut in by Blomfield and Coxon, the inside-right passed out to Robinson, who was given offside in the first minute of the game. Scott now got away, but Black at back was very safe. From his powerful punt, Robinson ran through on the right, and, beating Richards, who was very slow, presented Walker with an open goal, but the inside man's shot went very wide. The Club attacked persistently, and only weak shooting and Coxon's clever headwork prevented a score. The R. E. at length transferred play, and, from a long pass by Scott, Pearce had a fine chance, but put the ball tamely behind. Good work by Scott and White looked dangerous for the Club, Black passing back to the goalie when hard pressed. The sappers were now playing a fine game, the ball bobbing about the Club goal-mouth in an ominous manner. Townsend forced a corner off Black, but Stewart cleared, and McTavish broke away and tested Wilkinson, but the shot lacked power, the goalie clearing easily. A strong appeal for "carrying" was ignored by the referee. The Club came again, and Robinson lobbed the ball in from the right. McTavish secured, but could not shoot, so he parted with the ball to Chasels, whose shot was charged down by Coxon, who eventually cleared, much to the relief of the R. E. supporters. This was easily the best scoring effort made by either side, and was warmly applauded by the crowd. There was nothing of interest in the remainder of the half, the interval whistle sounding with no goals scored.

Scott went down with a rash on resuming, and almost immediately tested Goldenberg with a fast "grunder," the goalie clearing smartly. The big centre now gave White a golden opportunity. The inside left was unmarked, but shot wildly among the spectators. The Club now took up the running. Stalker, who had been given very few opportunities this half cleverly beat Blomfield. He centred nicely to Chasels, who was presented with a gift goal, but to the surprise of Club and R. E. players alike, the centre forward put the ball a foot the wrong side of the post. It was a lucky escape for the sappers. The Club were now dominating the play, McTavish putting a pile-driver, which Wilkinson scarcely saw, a few inches over the bar. Not to be denied, the same player again secured from the goal kick, and, passing out to Stalker, the outside left beat Brennan and Blomfield, and, centring almost from the goal line, he gave Chasels the easiest possible opening. The centre was standing absolutely unmarked, about two yards in front of Wilkinson, and simply patted the ball past the goalie. It was a gift point after such a strenuous game, but, by leaving Chasels unmarked in such a position, the R. E. backs simply invited a score. There was a strong appeal for offside, but the referee, who was standing in the goalmouth, at once pointed to the centre-spot. The final whistle went shortly after Scott had re-started for R. E., the Club retiring winners by the only goal of the game.

Final: Club, 1; R. E., 0.

On Saturday, they did not finish up in anything like the same way that they commenced. Newman was very conspicuous in harassing the defence of the gunners, who, in turn retaliated by sending out Leighton, who kept the Navy quite busy for some considerable time. He was greatly assisted by Halle, who did his bit on the left wing. Dickenson made a very fine defender and was indeed a very valuable asset. For a brief space, the Navy took the ball to the other end, but their effort was a mere flash in the pan, and before they could scarcely turn round the ball was in their own territory, Palmer and Cornish being responsible for the thrust. Edgeler in the first half had bad luck with a header, which narrowly missed its mark.

In the second half, play was taken into the gunners' citadel, and they had a very busy time for some minutes, Garrod being called upon to save a difficult shot on more than one occasion. Play was soon taken to the Navy and, however, Saunders, grasping an opportunity, notched the first point for the gunners. A second or two later, Crocker got the ball, but was hustled by Saunders, who shot in another goal. To give the sailors their due, they did not acknowledge this as a sign of defeat, and set about trying to equalise but, besides being two down, they were hopelessly outclassed. Spiritran very high about this time, and there was a good deal of shouting on both sides. Youngman, for the R. E. A., took a penalty kick as the result of a foul, but shot deliberately for the corner flag. The Gunners won by two goals to nil.

Second Division Matches. The referee in the match between the Staff and Departments and the Islamics had to leave the field on Saturday, owing to the fact that the latter declined to follow his ruling, preventing the taking of a penalty kick which had been awarded by him to the other side. The game had to come to a close while the Staff and Departments were two up to the Islamics' one.

On the Military Ground on Saturday, the match took place between the R. E. Reserves and 83rd Company R. E. A. Some good play was seen. Downes, Baker and Millard being to the fore. The R. E. Reserves won by two goals to one.

Morrison Hall v. St. John's Hall. Played on the University ground. In the first half, there was no score, but Morrison Hall gradually wore down the fine defence of St. John's and Rumjahn scored a beautiful goal.

Morrison Hall are probably the best team in the University, and they thoroughly deserved their win in this exceptionally hard and fast contest. Result:—Morrison Hall, 1 goal; St. John's Hall, 0.

Dockyard Recreation Club v. 4th K.S.L.I.

"QUEER CARGOES."

Famous Showman in Hongkong.

Mr. Nikola, the well-known illusionist, who achieved great popularity with his wonderful disappearing and handoff tricks in Hongkong some six years ago, is passing through the Colony on his way to America. At the outbreak of war, Mr. Nikola was showing in South America, and he determined to take a lengthy vacation which he has devoted to touring round the world at his leisure with a cinematograph camera. Incidentally he has also set himself to collect wild animals on behalf of various zoological societies in America. Some of his collections are now in Hongkong, and others are due to arrive shortly from Saigon under the care of Mr. Hugo, his former manager.

Just lately Mr. Nikola has visited the F. M. S., Borneo, Sumatra and Indo-China, and has brought therefrom some most interesting specimens of the indigenous fauna of those countries. He has with him a very beautiful Borneo tiger, and a python somewhere about five and twenty feet long, both of which have aroused the curiosity in the minds of Hongkong natives. In Borneo he also purchased two young orang utans. From Sumatra and Indo-China he is bringing close on two hundred monkeys of various species, and, rounding off his valuable collection, are a few leopards and a black panther. The tiger, which according to a special interview this morning, is very docile and affectionate, and is already learning to eat rice. The animal was taken down to the Sincere Company's premises this afternoon and will be on view in the roof garden during the next week.

Mr. Nikola leaves shortly for San Francisco, whence he will journey with his queer cargo to Chicago. The pick of the animals will go to the Lincoln Park Zoological Gardens in that city.

A FORGED DRAFT.

The Criminal Sessions were resumed this morning, before Mr. Justice Gompertz, when Lung Man-kwong was indicted on a charge of feloniously uttering and endorsing a forged bill of exchange for $547 00, on August 22, which had been drawn on the San Jacinto Valley National Bank, of Stockton, California, at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, payable on the order of the Kwong On Lee Firm.

Mr. G. N. Orme appeared to prosecute, and prisoner was undefended.

Prisoner pleaded guilty. His Lordship:—He says a man gave him $10 to cash it for him at the bank. He would know it was not a fair deal.

Mr. Orme:—He signed his own name on the back of the draft, and he would not have done that unless he knew he was signing for some purpose known to be unlawful.

Mr. Orme went on to say, in answer to his Lordship, that the bill was stolen from abroad. It had been taken out of a letter addressed to the Kwong On Kee Firm, an agency doing a large business for paying out cheques from the United States remitted back to China. The letter, which came to hand later, showed that the cheque was intended for the Kwong On Kee to pay out to various clients and others. The draft did not reach the firm, but arrived at the bank on August 22, when it was passed over the counter by prisoner.

Prisoner was sentenced to two years' hard labour on each count, the sentences to run concurrently.

The Colony's Health. Small-pox still prevails in the Colony, no fewer than 23 cases being notified last week—two Europeans and the rest Chinese. Sixteen ended fatally. There were also three cases of diphtheria (all Chinese, one imported, one fatal), two of enteric fever (one Chinese and one Japanese, one fatal) and one non-fatal case of each of pharyngeal fever (Chinese) and scarlet fever (British).

Ammunition in Bamboo Pole.

Early yesterday morning a detective was walking along Connaught Road West when he saw a man carrying a bamboo pole. Being suspicious, he investigated the pole and found it to contain 39 rounds of ammunition and a revolver chamber. The man was charged before Mr. F. A. Hazeland to-day and his story was that he was not carrying the pole at all, but that the detective was. It was stated that the man came from Sumatra and that the ammunition was wrapped in paper bearing Dutch writing. A fine of $250, or three months, was imposed.

SHIPPING NEWS.

The Yangtze Run.

There was a time, says "Shipping Illustrated," when it was the ambition of wealthy travellers with leisure at their disposal to make the long and difficult journey up the Yangtze Gorges in China. It was then a feat to be remembered. Now the construction of specially built steamers for this perilous navigation has made the trip safe and feasible. Eight of these steamers are at present successfully making the run through these wonderful gorges.

New Chinese Shipping Company.

Capitalised at P180,000, a new Chinese steamship company to be established in Manila, filed incorporation articles last week morning in the archives division of the Philippine library and museum. The directors of the new firm are Messrs Jose Dyosi, Felipe Dy Toc, Dy Cay, Dy Onco and Yao Tai Wan, all residents in the city. The company will engage in shipping business in Philippine waters. The corporation has capital stock amounting to P180,000, of which P120,000 has been subscribed for and paid in.—"Manila Daily Bulletin."

Ships under Construction.

The returns, compiled by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, which only take into account vessels of 100 tons and upwards the construction of which has actually begun, show that there were 459 merchant vessels of 1,789,554 tons gross under construction in the United Kingdom at the close of the quarter ended September 30, 1916. The tonnage now under construction in the United Kingdom is about 249,000 tons more than that which was in hand at the end of last quarter, and about 253,000 tons more than the tonnage building twelve months ago.

Shipplag after the War.

Signs have not been wanting of late that Germany's saving every possible step to prepare herself for keen competition in the carrying trade after the war. The manner in which Germany saved large numbers of her ships from capture on the opening of hostilities indicated a pre-arrangement as well as a pre-determination to declare war. Our enemies have lost large numbers of vessels but Germany has done her utmost not only to stop our supplies but to reduce the mercantile marine of the world that she will emerge from the war as the "first shipping power." In furtherance of this idea Krupp have purchased an interest in the North German Lloyd steamship line, and Mr. Frederic Wile, formerly Berlin correspondent of the "Daily Mail" writes that the new alliance is the latest development of an extensive movement now taking shape in Germany for trade after the war—a co-ordinating of banking, steel, iron, coal and shipping interests. Krupp's appearance as a partner in the navigation trade is more significant than any other step in the phase of the movement. The Hamburg-American Line effected a somewhat similar alliance some time ago by linking up with Herr Schirmer, the Rhine-Westphalian iron magnate, while Herr Thyssen, another important factor in the coal, iron, and steel industries, has acquired large interests in the Vulcan Shipbuilding Works of Hamburg and Stettin, and has also allied himself with both the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd. Recently, also, the Deutsche Dredger, and Disconto Gesellschaft Banks of Berlin entered into closer community of interest with the Hamburg and Bremen companies. Moreover, the Germans are reported to have built several merchant vessels during the past two years. Mr. Walter Runciman stated a few days ago that since the beginning of the war the British shipping losses totalled 2,450,000 tons, but added that he saw no reason why we should not produce 500,000 tons of shipping in the six months ending December. While the Allies can out-build Germany, it will be long before we that the enemy intends to make a big bid for trade after hostilities cease.—"N. O. Daily News."

Killed in Action.

We hear that Mr. Arnold Brown, brother of Mr. C. Bernard Brown, has been killed in action. Three other brothers are at the front.

KOWLOON'S NEW WHARF.

Godown Company's Enterprise Celebrated.

With Hongkong's steady growth as a port, the provision of greater facilities for the convenient handling of the huge bulk of cargo which here changes hands has become a necessity. In the past, many of the larger class of vessels visiting the port have been forced to moor in mid harbour by reason of the fact that there was no wharfage at which they could be accommodated, and, seeing that vessels of very heavy tonnage are now frequently seen here, it was incumbent that this defect should be remedied. Boats belonging to the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd.; the Messageries Maritimes, the Glen Line, the Ben Line, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha have been among those excluded from wharfing, and as the No. 3 Wharf at Kowloon—the largest belonging to the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company—had long been inadequate to meet the growing demands, this enterprising Company decided about a year ago to build a new wharf which it would be possible for this class of boats to use all the year round. The depth of water at Kowloon had been a troublesome matter, but the new wharf, which was used for the first time last week, can give, at the lowest spring tide, a depth of 31 feet—more than enough for the largest boat seen in Hongkong. Messrs. Leigh and Orange designed and prepared plans; Mr. Ah Woon was the contractor, and it was built under the supervision of the Company's Engineer, Mr. T. W. Robertson. The Company was extremely lucky in getting all the steel work at pre-war prices; if they had to purchase the material now—and it is doubtful whether it could be obtained—the cost of the wharf would probably be nearly treble. The construction proceeded rapidly; the first pile was driven on December 20, 1915; the last on May 21, 1916, and the wharf was completed October 18 last. The total length is 668 feet, and the width 45 feet.

The wharf has been specially designed to stand the strain of big ships, being rounded off, so that ships can approach from any angle. The stability of the pier is undoubted, and when the Empress of Asia came alongside on Friday morning there was not the slightest trace of any strain or jar. In its construction every precaution has been taken to ensure the maximum strength, and it is evident that the wharf is well suited to all present demands.

The wharf, which is the nearest the Star Ferry Pier, is a fine addition to the Company's property and an added asset to the Colony. To mark its opening, the Company, together with the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Limited, invited Government officials, members of the Colony's leading mercantile firms, and some of the most influential Chinese of the Colony to a function on board the Empress of Asia, which has been the first boat to use the wharf, this event taking place this afternoon.

The function was very largely attended, and visitors were greatly impressed at the new accommodation, and also at the palatial character of the liner berthed alongside. The vessel and the wharf were gaily decorated with flags, refreshments were served on board, and by kind permission of the Colonel and Officers of the regiment, the band of the 74th Panjabis rendered a fine selection of music.

In view of this addition to the Company's establishment, a few notes concerning its history should be of interest. Thirty-one years ago this month, the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co., Ltd. was formed to acquire from Sir Paul (then Mr.) Chater, their present property at Kowloon and from Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., certain property in Hongkong. The sites were most desirable and the prosperity of the Company greatly increased under the able management of Mr. Osborne, the guidance of the Chairman, as Senior Representative of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson, and Co., Ltd., Sir Paul Chater and their co-directors; also Mr. Wong Kam-fuk, the Comptroller, who has been in that office since 1889.

Unfortunately the 1906 typhoon dealt them a severe blow, nearly all their fleet of lighters being lost and two wharves being practically destroyed. New capital was called for and subscribed, a fresh fleet of lighters was acquired, new wharves were built and with retrenchment and hard work on the part of all the staff, the Company again began to prosper. There are 35 godowns with a storage capacity of about 300,000 tons, a fleet of 31 lighters and 8 steam tugs, also a considerable number of cranes for the expeditions handling of cargo. There are five wharves at Kowloon, four of which are for ocean-going steamers, and eight boats can be accommodated. The foundations for a new three-story steel godown of 20,000 tons capacity are being put in opposite the new wharf, but the constructional work will not be proceeded with until the steel can be purchased on favourable terms. Meanwhile, a smaller godown of brick is being erected at the back which will be ready next month and will take about 4,000 tons.

Mr. W. S. Brown, at present on leave, is the Secretary of the Company and Mr. P. E. Wolf is in charge.

It is a matter of congratulation that although the Wharf Co. have no longer any German and Austrian steamers coming here, fresh lines are using the wharves and the prosperity of the Company is greater than ever it has been, and this is due to the fact that the policy of the Wharf Co. is to keep up with the times and give satisfaction to all its constituents.

MOVING FIGURES.

The Case Against the Sun Company.

The case in which the Sun Company, of Des Voeux Road Central, is charged with creating a public nuisance by exhibiting certain moving figures in its shop window, thereby causing large crowds to collect and obstruct the footpath and roadway, was again before Mr. J. R. Wood at the Police Court this morning.

The Hon. C.S.P., (Mr. C. McLea) again appeared to prosecute and Mr. E. Davidson defended.

At the previous hearing it was stated that the exhibiting of the figures had attracted very large crowds, the whole of the Police Reserve having been employed on one occasion to disperse those assembled. Mr. Davidson said it was an important matter for the firm, and he wanted a decision on it. He therefore pleaded not guilty.

Inspector Garrod, traffic Inspector of the Hongkong Police, said that at 8.45 p.m. on November 16 he saw a large crowd of Chinese outside the store in Des Voeux Road Central. They were outside the westernmost window, and extended over the side walk into the road. They extended right over the tramway line to Wing Lok Street, blocking the whole of Des Voeux Road. The exhibition in the window mentioned was causing the crowd to collect, this being a landscape with moving figures. He tried to get the crowd away with the aid of an Indian constable, but failed until a tumbler came along and pushed the people away. The car had to stop up and go very cautiously. He then went into the store and saw a sub-manager, whom he took into the road to see the crowd. Witness left at nine o'clock, the crowd being still there. There was also a brass band playing in one of the rooms upstairs, but he thought the bigger portion of the crowd was there to see the moving figures. Some were only standing there to listen to the band.

Inspector Garrod went on to speak of other visits he had made, saying that on November 12, he went there at 8 p.m., the exhibition was then proceeding. There was no band playing, but the people were half-way across the road. On November 18, in the forenoon, he was there again, and the pavement was completely blocked, the people also extending about three feet into the roadway. The exhibitions had been going on, to his knowledge, for the last two months.

Mr. Davidson said they had been on for the last three years, and even more attractive ones than the one now causing the crowds.

Inspector Garrod said that prior to the last two months it was possible to walk on the pavement. In the course of cross-examination by Mr. Davidson, Inspector Garrod said that he regarded the obstruction as a serious matter, and he only left it as it was because by the time he had fetched constables to clear the people away the shop would have been closed and the nuisance removed. The crowd was quite an orderly one. The band was not the sole cause of the attraction, for more than half the people were trying to see the figures.

Mr. Davidson said that his contention was the crowd was caused by the band.

Inspector Garrod admitted that he did not see any motor cars held up, but several risked were. He had warned the Company on two previous occasions.

Mr. Messer added that he had warned the Company once personally. This closed the case for the prosecution.

Evidence was given for the defence by the Sub-manager of the Company, who said that, whilst on the evening in question there were people in the road listening to the band, there was not a great crowd by the window. There were more people there than usual. They had a band three times a year, and there was always a crowd then. They had displayed figures for three years and had never received any complaints from the Police. Wing On and Sincere's used such figures, the last occasion being in August.

When the footpath was not passable they had a watchman there keeping it clear.

Answering Mr. Messer, witness said the window, as at present dressed, had been so arranged for about four weeks only.

A former employee of the Company, and now a shareholder, gave evidence, saying he was present with Inspector Garrod. He found a crowd all along the premises with the exception of gaps for the people to pass into the shop. The crowd was not all across the road.

Mr. Davidson intimated that he would like to address his Worship at some length, and, as it was past one o'clock, His Worship further adjourned the case until Wednesday morning at 12 o'clock.

CANTON NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Canton, Nov. 24.

Auction of Public Property.

A proclamation from the Civil Governor announces that, owing to the unfavourable condition of governmental finances, coupled with the fact that there are some heavy obligations that will fall due in the immediate future, he considers it best to dispose by public auction of the governmental properties that are not being put to use. Another order has been sent out requesting the Commissioner of Finance to bring all the leases on government property to the Governor for his inspection.

It has long been a source of wonder to outsiders as to why the local government groaned under such a burden of debt and financial stringency while it was in possession of millions of dollars' worth of valuable property in Canton that is being put to no conceivable use. Why not sell it and relieve the situation and thus convert the property into a taxable proposition at the same time? What honour is there to the government in owning property that it does not improve or use in any way while at the same time it must continually blush because it cannot pay its debts?

Money for Admiral Mok.

Yesterday, the 22nd, Chu Hing-len sent a telegram to Admiral Mok that it would be too troublesome for him to be obliged to come to Canton to get the money to pay his troops as it would necessitate his being absent from his responsible post for several days. Therefore the Governor instructed him to take the money out of the Chin Chow Likin fund in the Custom House at that place. Another instance of the common sense that is being brought into the public administration. Usually this money passes through many hands before it has been the rounds and is finally used for legitimate purposes, and who shall say some of it does not stick to some of the greedy hands? This sum, at least, will be paid directly to the man who is to make use of it.

Child Killed by Train.

As the Canton-Kowloon train that left Kowloon on the morning of the 21st was passing Nan Kiang station it was discovered that a child about five years of age was standing in the middle of the track. It was too late to stop the train and the child was run down, his head cut off, and the poor little body horribly mangled. Report has it that no alarm was sounded and the speed of the train not slackened in the least, but this may be the result of the active imaginations of the excited and terrified bystanders.

Money for the Kwangtung Hospital.

For a number of years there has been a government hospital known to the initiated as Kwangtung Hospital, but most people were unaware of its existence. Last year a new building was erected and great plans were laid to make it prosperous and useful. But about the only excitement it occasioned was the bitter fight between two prominent Chinese

The Civil Governor has set aside a considerable sum, said to be $15,000, for the benefit of this institution, from the Salt revenue, and he proposes to give it in monthly instalments. ## THE SILVER MARKET.

[Reuter's Service to The "Telegraph."]

November 23, 9.30 p.m.

Messrs. Montagu report that orders are not confined to minting, but have embraced general purposes, home and continental; also for the Indian bazaar.

Unfavourable views taken in India caused a bear position on the London market, which, in view of the statistical position, is not without danger.

It is unchallengeable that the condition of the market is sounder than at the time of the spectacular movements in May. Since then the Chinese stock has been greatly reduced and America has been relieved of the then accumulations. The Indian currency figures show a declining tendency.

Silver often does the unexpected; but the situation is such that further advances may be expected before the close of the year.

November 25, 1.45 a.m.

A Paris communique reports that matters were quiet on the whole front. Two German aeroplanes were felled.

November 25, 12.15 p.m.

Reuter's correspondent at Paris states that details are published of a great air raid on November 22nd, the results of which were most important.

The object was to deprive the Germans of their line of communications fifty kilometres behind their front, where intense activity had previously been noted by our reconnoitring airships.

The operation was entrusted to a British squadron of 16 machines, escorted by 18 chasseurs, seven of which were French. The squadron carried four tons of bombs and were favoured with splendid weather.

They reached a certain railwayline full of trains and material which they bombed. Then they arrived at a big railway station where were two trains; one full of troops, the other full of material. Great excitement was observed.

An enemy squadron immediately attacked but were put to flight by the chasseurs who brought down one. Meanwhile the bombardiers dropped 80 bombs on the station and precincts. A series of explosions was distinctly heard, while an immense sheet of flame arose above the central station building and smoke darkened the sky for a long time.

Despite anti-aircraft guns the squadron got away but the work was unfinished. Following the railwayline they arrived at an important supply station just when a munitions train was coming in. Descending to 300 metres, the squadron dropped 60 bombs, completely destroying the train.

The raiders then attacked with machine-guns and revolver-guns motor-car convoys which were on the point of leaving. The soldiers were thrown in a panic and fled in all directions.

Enemy air-squadrons attacked and an exciting battle ensued. Our squadron put out of action two hostile machines and arrived at our base intact.
